

PENTECOST 10

Jesus, the Bread of Life:
He provides our daily bread

PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

July 29, 2018

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

We love that you are here today! In the Windsor St. building restrooms are located in the foyer by the library. There is a mothers' room in the back of the sanctuary. In the Stonehaven building restrooms are in the hallway and mothers may use the library in back if they need space with their little ones. Please to fill out a guest card from the pew rack or from a bulletin and place it in the offering plate. Thank you.

TODAY'S FOCUS

Today we hear the miracle of Jesus feeding the 5000. This event leads to His famous "Bread of Life" sermon. Thus begins a several-Sunday "Bread of Life" series through August. Today, the emphasis is that Jesus can and does provide for our physical necessities. This sets up the coming weeks: if Jesus makes our physical needs a non-issue (because He provides for us), we can focus on our much more important spiritual needs.

PLEASE RESPECT OUR PRACTICE OF “CLOSE COMMUNION”

Christ says the Sacrament is an expression of unity (1 Co 10:16-17). We WANT to be unified with you on the basis of Christ and His doctrine! Honesty compels us to ask you to WAIT before communing with us: 1) until you’ve had a chance to find out what we teach; 2) until you make your unity with us evident by membership at Peace. Regular classes are conducted for this purpose (837-5346). WELS & ELS guests please sign a “guest” card and give it to an usher before communing. Thank you.

FINAL SUNDAY AT 232 WINDSOR ST.

JOSH & ROSSI ZARLING FAREWELL

In all the craziness of the Summer of 2018 and the “Great Move” a proper farewell was not given to Teacher Rossi Zarling and her husband Josh. Rossi taught 1st grade at Peace for the past 4 years. Many of you are familiar with Josh who taught Bible studies and preached many times here at Peace. Josh has accepted a divine Call to be pastor at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, West Allis.
